

Some Good News

Brought to you by the Solon Benevolent Fund

1st Quarter Report, 2020

During the last three months, with the support of you and others, Solon Benevolent Fund has provided some welcome financial aid to the following Solon individuals and organizations:

- Some financial relief for a recovering heart surgery patient, helping to bridge her recovery back to work.
- Support of household expenses for a Solon family of four children and a single mother.
- Financial contribution to the Solon Senior Center to replenish funding for the senior's nutrition program, a program that buys ready meals and delivers them to seniors, benefiting more than 40 Solon seniors with limited finances or physical limitations on preparing their own meals.

If you know of a family, an individual or organization that is in need, please refer them to us, we'll try to help.

We extend the appreciation from our recipients and our organization to you for your generous help in supporting our community efforts.
